ItaLingua
Learn, live, love . . . Italian style!

Francesca Gaspari, President/Executive Director, is passionate about the ItaLingua community and realizing her dream of building a strong community fostering connections between people from diverse backgrounds.

“ItaLingua is a cultural center where people can feel the Italian atmosphere. . . . where conversation and learning are combined with the simple cultural pleasures of my country. I want to continue to build a community that is more than just a school. . . a place for Italians and people of all nationalities to join together and experience the beautiful Italian way of life.”
